

Weekend @ Waikato

BULLRUSH MAKES IT FOUR FROM FOUR

WS galloper Bullrush confirmed himself as a true blackbooker this week.

Trained by Hawkes Racing, Bullrush has won four starts from as many outings, the most recent of which coming at Canterbury on Wednesday.

"It was another really top effort and the horse continues to step up each time," Hawkes Racing told Waikato Stud.

Bred and raced by the stud, Bullrush is by O'Reilly and is out of the Pins mare Pin Up.

Pin Up has already produced three winners from four to race, with the leading light so far being daughter Sports Illustrated (Fast n Famous), who was a Gr.2 winner and Gr.1 placed (pictured left-middle)

This is the family of world champion miler, and now Gr.1 sire, Starcraft.

PEDIGREE POINTERS

-WITH GARETH DOWNEY-

In winning the Gr.1 Robert Sangster Classic at Morphetville last weekend, Precious Gem became the 2nd Gr.1 winner to combine Pins and Kaapstad together in a pedigree. The other Gr.1 winner bred using this pattern is the triple Gr.1 winner and international sprint star Aerovelocity.

These two Gr.1 winners have come from just 29 runners to date bred on a combination of Pins and Kaapstad. There have also been another two stakes winners and a further three stakes placed performers, so combining these two sires together is so far producing 13.8% SW/Rnrs; and 24.1% of the runners have achieved black type.

% Stakes Winners to Runners

The pedigree theory providing the foundation for this success again appears to be a wonderful accumulation of powerful female ancestors being brought together through different branches of the families they have founded.

The female ancestors being duplicated in this case include Alcibiades, Lavendula II, Malva, Mumtaz Begum, Mumtaz Mahal, Nogara, Plucky Liege and Selene – all extremely powerful influences in our breed.

If you have a mare by, or carrying, Kaapstad and you would like to tap into this pedigree pattern and the proven success being achieved by it, then sending her to Pins this season would be the way to achieve that.

If you would like to discuss this, or any other mating options, please contact me via gareth@waikatostud.co.nz or 021 433 073

THE MAIL

-WITH MARK CHITTICK-

Congratulations to New Zealand Bloodstock, vendors and buyers who participated at this week's National Weanling and Broodmare Sale.

It was so enjoyable to be there during such a positive week. There is every reason to be proud of the position we find ourselves in with respect to the demand for NZ horses.

Another great week on the track for the WS team, with Bullrush (O'Reilly x Pin Up) - who is raced in part with Waikato Stud staff-taking his unbeaten record to four from four for Team Hawkes in Australia.

Snowdrop (Pins x Daffodil) rounded out her season for the Pike stable with 4 wins and 2 placings from 6 starts. She is a daughter of our 3 time Gr.1 winner Daffodil, so it would be lovely to get some black-type with her next season.
