The Mike de Kock-trained youngster created a huge impression on debut at the end of April, winning effortlessly by nine lengths [click here for video].

Muwaary was selected by Angus Gold for Shadwell Australia at Inglis' 2014 Australian Easter Yearling Sale for A$525,000.

The Jason Abrahams-bred youngster is out of the stakes-winning Anabaa mare Silently, who is a half-sister to the 3x Gr.1 winner Criterion and the Gr.2 winner Varena Miss.

PINS SHINING BRIGHT

In taking out the Gr. 1 KrisFlyer International Sprint in dominant fashion, it was the case of yet another Gr. 1 victory in yet another country for the wonderful Pins galloper Aerovelocity. Adding to his Gr. 1 victories in Hong Kong and Japan, this win took the career tally to 10 wins from just 18 starts to date...what an exciting international performer he is!

In this column, I have previously looked at the pedigree of Aerovelocity and highlighted the affinity between Pins and mares by sons of Sir Tristram. There was another Pins winner this week who helped to shine the light on another successful affinity that is carried in the pedigree of Aerovelocity. The evergreen galloper Spin Doctor collected win number 12 of his career in winning the Open 1400m event at Te Rapa on Saturday.

With Aerovelocity being out of a Kaapstad mare, and Spin Doctor being out of an Octagonal mare, this provides a very interesting pattern. Kaapstad and Octagonal are of course  $\frac{3}{4}$  brothers...so there seems to be a real synergy in combining Pins with that wonderful mare Eight Carat. In fact, when Pins has been mated with mares carrying Eight Carat anywhere in their pedigree, the results are running at 11.5% SW/Rnrs. Apart from Aerovelocity, the other stakes winners bred on this pattern have been the multiple Singapore Group winner Knight's Command, and the Melbourne Listed winner Almodovar.

So, if you have a mare who either descends from Eight Carat, or who carries one of the sires descending from Eight Carat, then Pins looks like an excellent option to give you the best possible chance of producing a high class runner. Some of the more common stallions who carry Eight Carat in their pedigrees include Colombia, Commands, Danewin, Don Eduardo, Kaapstad, Lonhro, Octagonal, Viking Ruler, Viscount and Zed.

With Pins now having a commanding lead in the Centaine Award [Global earnings for NZ-conceived progeny], and with him having the very impressive career record of producing 7.7% SW/Rnrs, he also represents particularly good value at his fee this season of $25,000 + GST. If you would like to discuss a booking to Pins, or any other stallion options, please feel free to contact me via gareth@waikatostud.co.nz or on 021 433 073
