Pedigree Pointers with GARETH DOWNEY

The super Savabeel season continued on its winning roll this week, with another 2 wins at stakes level. Diademe picked up the 3rd stakes win of her career in winning the Gr. 3 Westbury Classic at Ellerslie for the 2nd time on Wednesday. Last Saturday, Savaria became the 38th stakes winner for Savabeel when she stormed home to deadheat with Platinum Witness in the Gr. 3 Lowland Stakes at Hastings. Such was the style of her win that she was immediately made favourite for the NZ Oaks, ahead of another daughter of Savabeel in Saavoya.

Just this season alone, Savabeel has now had 10 stakes winners of 15 stakes races. Of the 10 stakes winners, 9 of them have been at Group level, including three Gr. 1 winners. That is an exceptionally good season in anyone's books. For his career to date, he has now sired 38 stakes winners, including six at Gr. 1 level, and he is now running at 9.2% SW/Rnrs for his career – a figure that is very rarely surpassed.

In terms of pedigree commonalities in his 2 stakes winners this week, they are both out of O'Reilly mares. This continues the incredible success of horses bred on this Savabeel / O'Reilly cross. Of the 23 runners bred on this cross, there have now been 7 stakes winners – which represents a success rate of 30.4% SW/Rnrs...again, a figure very rarely surpassed over a sample size this large.

Whether you look at just the Savabeel / O'Reilly cross...or at the entire record of Savabeel...it is indeed outstanding and just keeps continuing.

THE MAIL WITH MARK CHITTICK

Great day at the Auckland Cup on Wednesday. Special congrats to Dato Yap Kim San and the whole Raffles Racing team for your success in the Gr.1 feature with Rock Diva - a result which remarkably comes just days after your Gr.2 Surround Stakes success with First Seal.

Let's hope your run of great results carries on this Saturday, when our multiple Gr.1 winner Sacred Falls heads out in the Gr.1 Canterbury Stakes. All going to plan, he should have a strong finish in this 1300m feature.

Speaking of successful owners, we had Lib Petagna at the farm this week. Lib's already had Lucia Valentina fly the Gr.1 flag for JML Bloodstock this season and after a few reds last night, we decided he would also count success as owner of this Saturday's Gr.1 Diamond Stakes winner at Ellerslie.

So that's my tip this week...Dal Cielo, race 6 at Ellerslie, 3:27 pm.
