60 Seconds with... DARRYL ANDERSON

This week we put 60 seconds of curious questions to media personality Darryl Anderson, host of Trackside's new show Weigh In

Favourite comfort food:	Dark Chocolate Tim Tams out of the fridge..
Do you have any nicknames and how did you come to get it:	DJ [middle initial J] growing up, but more recently DA [I think Andre Neill started calling me this and it stuck]
Best Horse involved with and seen:	Green Easy [I'm hoping] and Sunline the best I've seen in the flesh
Book on the bedside table:	Form guide printed off the TAB website
If you weren't a journalist, you'd be:	Playing a lot more golf!
What do you do to relax:	Play tennis and golf when I can
Favourite TV show:	At the moment, probably A Place Called Home
Who would you love to meet or have met:	Robin Williams
Favourite holiday destination:	Fiji
Favourite thing about Waikato Stud:	Hospitality
How did you get involved with racing:	Through Graham Richardson. I met him playing squash and we became friends which led to my interest/passion for racing and transition from music radio to racing tv
Favourite Movie:	No favourite, although The Wolf Of Wall Street the best of the recent ones
Career Highlights:	Being instrumental in the launch of the First Call and hosting it for many years, being chased to work for Sky Racing World in Aus, and now hosting the new racing review show Weigh In
Best piece of good advice:	Where there's a will - there's a way!
If someone was going to play you in a movie:	My wife thinks Michael Galvin Dr Warner] ... I'd be thinking Brad Pitt or Tom Cruise myself
Name 3 people you'd love to invite to a dinner party:	Tiger Woods, Rod Stewart & Jimeoin
Not many people would know that I...	I was a finalist for a Qantas Media Award for a story I did on Bruce Herd

SAVABEEL SETS HIS SIGHTS ON SPRING

What a phenomenal result it was for Savabeel last Saturday! In one day, his progeny picked up two Gr. 1 wins, two Gr. 1 placings, a Listed placing at Flemington and wins in a $65K race at the Gold Coast as well as at Kembla Grange. Given all of that came from only 15 runners, phenomenal is not an adjective that overstates that for a day! And if the market has got things right, the Melbourne Spring Carnival is going to continue to be phenomenal for Savabeel; given he now has the favourite for the Caulfield Cup in Lucia Valentina, and the favourite for the VRC Derby in Atmosphere!

Lucia Valentina and Costume were his two Gr.1 winners last weekend, both picking up their second wins at Gr. 1 level. There are three key pedigree patterns represented by these two track stars and they are as follows:

Savabeel out of an O'Reilly Mare

This cross is running at an amazing strike rate of 30% SW/Rnrs. The stakes winners are Costume, Chintz, Diademe, Iggi Pop, Nandowra and Kudakulari. Between them, these six stakes winners have won 12 stakes races including nine at Group level.

Savabeel out of a mare carrying Riverman

This pedigree pattern is running at 16.2% SW/Rnrs. Perhaps the most amazing part about this is that, from just 37 runners, there have been three Gr. 1 winners. Apart from Costume, these are the triple Gr. 1 winning Sangster and the Queensland Derby winning Brambles whose comeback continued so well on Saturday with him being right in the finish of the Turnbull coming third behind Lucia Valentina. Other stakes winners bred on this pedigree pattern have been Savvy Nature, Lopov and Queen Sabeel.

Savabeel out of Sadler's Wells line mares

This cross is running at 14.3% SW/Rnrs. Lucia Valentina is the horse who has most highlighted this pattern, and the other stakes winners have been Savvy Nature, Éclair Big Bang, My Sabeel and Queen Sabeel.

We will continue to watch with great excitement as the Savabeel progeny just keep highlighting what a wonderful job Savabeel is doing at stud. Bring on the rest of the Spring Carnival!

If you would like to discuss your mating plans for the season and the pursuit of successful pedigree patterns, please feel free to contact me at gareth@waikatostud.co.nz or on 021 433 073.

Cheers, Gareth.
