KARAKA DAY 1 WRAP UP: WAIKATO STUD AWAY TO A FAST START

www.waikatostud.com

Waikato Stud got away to a flying start during the opening session of Book 1 at New Zealand Bloodstock's National Yearling Sale.

The Pins filly from Exactly Like You (Lot 18) was purchased by Te Akau Racing principal David Ellis for $300,000

The champion vendors sold 14 of their 16 lots and averaged an impressive $225,000.

Their first lot through the ring commanded widespread attention before he was knocked down to leading agent Bruce Perry.

He went to $360,000, the stud's top price of the day, to secure a Savabeel colt out of the well-related O'Reilly mare Etiquette.

She is a sister to the multiple Group One winner and farm resident Sacred Falls.

She is also a three-quarter sister to Gr.3 Thoroughbred Club Stakes winner Splashing Out.

The Gr.2 Challenge Stakes winner

Splurge and the Gr.3 Arawa Stakes winner and Group One performer Packing Pins are also in this family.

The progeny of the late Pins were well sought after with Peter Ho parting with $340,000 for a colt out of Home Made.

By O'Reilly, she is a sister to the former champion Singapore sprinter Arenti and the famed Glamour Puss family.

A daughter of Pins caught the attention of Te Akau chief David Ellis and he made her his own. He went to $300,000 to take away the filly out of the unraced Savabeel mare Exactly Like You (Lot 78).

Her pedigree includes the Gr.2 Matriarch Stakes winner Savapinski.

Ellis also went to $320,000 for a Savabeel filly out of High Fashion, a dual Group Three winner by O'Reilly.

She is from the family of the Gr.2 Waikato Cup winner and Group One placegetter Ultimate Aim.

Ellis later secured a Savabeel filly out of a half-sister to the multiple Group One winner Metal Bender for $300,000.

Ocean Park made his mark when his son, a half-brother to the Gr.1 New Zealand Oaks winner and Gr.1

Livamol Classic Savvy Coup came into the ring.

Spirited bidding followed before he was claimed by the Hong Kong Jockey Club for $220,000.

Respected agent John Foote secured the farm's top-priced Sacred Falls lot for the day for $150,000.

The colt is out of Savabeel's daughter Fabulist and the family of the Group Two winner Kapsdan and the multiple Listed winner Wyndam Glory.

Bidding opened at $800,000 on the handsome colt and closed at $1.4 million.

Te Akau supremo David Ellis had the final say and Mark Chittick was over the moon.

It was their best ever result at Karaka, bowling over the $875,000 realised by another of their Savabeels last year. Adding to that, he is the highest priced yearling by Savabeel to be sold, ever.

"He's probably the most outstanding horse we've ever brought here and the comments we were getting were great," he said.

We knew he'd sell well and it was well above expectations. He'd been out of his box we'll over 150 times and he's just got the best attitude.

"Te Akau do a wonderful job and it's a huge thrill to us that he's staying in New Zealand.

"I'm sure he'll make us proud on the track. He's the complete package and with such a big draft here the staff have done a massive job."

The colt is a half-brother to Another Dollar out of the Pins mare Make a Wish and is a grandson of the dual Group Three winner and Group One performer Starcent.

Ellis said he was running out of steam toward the end of bidding, but was determined to get the colt.

"I was on the ropes at the end, I might have had one more," he said.

The colt has been purchased for a Te Akau stallion syndicate.

www.waikatostud.com

"We are proud New Zealanders and want to see the best horses stay in New Zealand and hopefully they are good enough to race in Australia," Ellis said.

"He's a stunning individual and he was on everybody's list. He's the most impressive individual on the complex."

Another Waikato Stud colt went Ellis' way when he went to $430,000 for the youngster by Savabeel out of O'Dianne.

She won as a two-year-old and finished fourth in the Karaka Million.

It is the family of multiple Group 2 winner Century Kid (Centaine).

Roger James and Robert Wellwood weren't to be denied either in their pursuit of a daughter of Savabeel presented by Waikato Stud.

The Cambridge conditioners stayed the distance to secure the Savabeel filly out of O'Reilly mare Kashmir (Lot 121) for $400,000.

"I like a lot about the filly obviously," James said. "I have a long-standing client that wanted a Savabeel filly and I thought she was clearly the best of them."

"It is the sort of money we thought we would have to pay. I don't say it's good value, but hopefully, in two years' time, we are saying it's wonderful value."

"She strikes me as a classic filly. You have got to buy with a chance of getting to a three-year-old classic and Savabeel has proven he can do it."

"The pedigree is a filly's pedigree. All round I thought she was a beautifully balanced filly who has every chance of doing the job that we have bought her for."

Lot 121 Savabeel - Kashmir filly

She is out of Kashmir, who is by O'Reilly and won one modest race.

She is a half-sister to the Gr.1 Avondale Cup winner Sharvasti and the Group Three winners Shastri and Bhandara.

Also featuring in this family is the Gr.2 Auckland Thoroughbred Breeders' Stakes winner Balmacara.

The farm had very few representatives in the draft by outside stallions but were glad they had a Rubick colt in their numbers. He proved extremely popular and was finally knocked down for $360,000 to Melbourne agent Suman Hedge.

The flashy chestnut is out of a half-sister to the Gr.1 New Zealand Thoroughbred Breeders' Stakes winner Arlingtonboulevard.

KARAKA DAY 3 WRAP UP: SAVABEEL CONTINUES TO LIGHT UP RING

www.waikatostud.com

The demand for the progeny of Waikato Stud's super sire Savabeel continued on the third day at Karaka.

Top of his list was the son of Suavito, who went to Te Akau's David Ellis for $775,000.

The purchase completed his stallion syndicate, which also includes Monday's $1.4 million sale-topper.

"The colts' syndicate is full now. I just hope we can win Group 1 races in New Zealand and Australia and then stand them at stud somewhere," Ellis said.

The final member of the syndicate is the first foal of the Gr. 1 Futurity Stakes and Gr.1 C F Orr Stakes winner Suavito.

"The mare was really top class and it's nice to have one out of her in the stable," Ellis said.

"I knew he would be an expensive horse and he's a precocious Savabeel. He'll probably be the first of the syndicate to race.

"He could be an ideal horse for the NZ$1 million race at Ellerslie and then possibly take him over for the Sires' Produce and Champagne Stakes at Randwick.

"Waikato Stud is a beautiful property and very well run – it's a great operation."

Earlier in the day, a Savabeel filly that realised $525,000 was snapped up by successful owners Ger Beemsterboer and Chris and Sarah Green, who race under the Barneswood Farm banner.

KARAKA DAY 3 WRAP UP: SAVABEEL CONTINUES TO LIGHT UP RING (CONT'D)

An opening bid of $400,000 emphasised the interest in the filly and she was subsequently knocked down to their trainer Peter Williams.

"There was some stiff competition for her and we're happy to get her," Sarah Green said. "We had a bit more in reserve so it was very good.

"Peter does all the pre-sale inspections and goes all around the farms and makes a list. We all get to the sales and then have another look over them."

The Savabeel filly is out of the unraced O'Reilly mare Rush, a sister to the Gr.3 Thoroughbred Club

Stakes winner Splashing Out.

She has been an excellent producer and is the mother of the Group 2 winners Splurge and Shopaholic.

Rush is also a three-quarter sister to Savabeel's associate sire and multiple Group One winner Sacred Falls.

Agent Stuart Hale went to $500,000 for a Savabeel colt who has been handed impressive pedigree updates pre-sale from Hong Kong.

He is a half-brother to Regency Legend who is unbeaten in three starts in Hong Kong for Danny Shum.

He raced in New Zealand as Espumoso and won twice and was stakes-placed from the stable of Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman.

The dam is the O'Reilly mare Sparkling, who was unraced and is a sister to the dam of the Group One winners Diademe and Embellish.

Sacred Falls has enjoyed a strong sale and prominent owner David Archer wasn't to be denied a well-related colt.

www.waikatostud.com

Archer was forced to go to $380,000 – the highest price ever paid for a Sacred Falls yearling.

The colt is out of Savabeel's daughter Savodara, who is a three-quarter sister to the dual Group Three winner Bhandara.

Savodara is also a half-sister to the Gr.1 Avondale Gold Cup winner Sharvasti and the Gr.3 Hawke's Bay Guineas winner Shastri.

Victoria's Cape Shanck Stud is also a paid-up member of the Sacred Falls fan club. They went to $220,000 for a daughter of the Savabeel mare Queen Sabeel, winner of the Listed Northland Breeders' Stakes.

She has left a couple of winners including the black type performer Sagunto.

Late in the sale, Waikato Stud's Per Incanto filly from Virginia sold to the Balia Family Trust for $255,000.

She is out of a sister to the multiple Group One winner and sire Alamosa and closely related to the Gr.1 Diamond Stakes winner Dal Cielo.

KARAKA DAY 4 WRAP UP: CHAMPION SAVABEEL THE DOMINANT FORCE

www.waikatostud.com

The ever-reliable Savabeel didn't disappoint on the closing day of the Book 1 Sale at Karaka.

A colt closely-related to Monday's $1.4 million Savabeel sale-topper earned widespread attention on Wednesday afternoon.

Bidding was fierce before international agent Hubie de Burgh had the final say at $500,000.

"He looks like a Cox Plate horse we hope. He's really athletic and beautifully balanced, he floats on air.

"He is by this great stallion Savabeel out of an O'Reilly mare and that's a fantastic cross.

"It's a great all-up package and from a great stud that just keeps breeding Group 1 winners.

"Hopefully, we are reducing our risk and he is very closely related to the horse that made NZ$1.4 million. We wanted to buy him, but didn't have the budget.

"This colt is for Sheikh Hamdan and he'll be going to David Hayes."

He is out of Cupid, a three-quarter sister to the stakes performer Patrick and a half-sister to the Gr.1 Queensland Oaks runner-up Another Dollar.

The colt also presented a memorable result for Waikato Stud's Bloodstock Manager Kerrie Cox, who is a part-owner.

Savabeel's son out of the unraced Anabaa mare Chilled Out (Lot 639) was also popular and was knocked down for $425,000.

www.waikatostud.com

This colt's dam, Chilled Out is a half-sister to the stakes winner The Big Chill and to the dam of Coldplay.

She won six races, including the Gr.2 Rich Hill Mile and the Gr.2 Cal Isuzu Stakes.

Another major result was Lot 661 who was knocked down for 340,000 to Nigel Tiley on behalf of the Balia Family Trust.

She is out of the Pins mare Daisy Chain, a sister to the multiple winner and Listed performer Snowdrop.

They are daughters of the multiple Group One winner and former champion three-year-old Daffodil.

Major Australian players Aquis Farm also claimed a Savabeel colt for $375,000.

He is out of the winning O'Reilly mare Chandelier (Lot 631), a sister to the Group Two and Three winner Irlanda.

Successful agent Bruce Perry went to $300,000 for a Savabeel filly out of the O'Reilly mare Baby Shacks (Lot 579), who didn't race but is particularly well-related.

She is a sister to Group Two winners Vigor and Joey Massino and Karaka Million winner Vincent Mangano.

Team Rogerson was understandably hot on the Pins colt out of Costume (Lot 654) and successfully pursued him with a final $280,000.

They trained his dam to win the Gr.1 Spring Classic and the Gr.1 Herbie Dyke Stakes.

Close relation Masque has also won for the stable and ran third in the Listed Wellesley Stakes.

A son of Ocean Park was popular in the ring before he was knocked down to Queensland interests for $190,000.

Offered as Lot 600, he is a half-brother to the Stakes winner Predator and to Flamingo, a Group Three performer.

Their dam is the Danasinga mare Bird, who won the Listed Warstep Stakes.

It is the family of the Gr.1 Auckland Cup winner Chenille and the Gr.2 Rich Hill Mile winner Chintz.
