Another Australian Super Seth Winner

Two-year-old Feroce (ex Corinthia) provided his sire Super Seth with a fourth individual winner last Thursday with a strong win on debut at Pakenham. The juvenile, who crossed the line two and a-quarter lengths ahead, also provided his trainer Dominic Sutton with the first win of his career and will now target metropolitan races in Melbourne. Bred by Pencarrow Stud, he was purchased for $160,000 from Kilgraven Lodge's draft at the NZB Ready To Run Sale by his trainer alongside McKeever Bloodstock.

"All credit to the horse, he knuckled down well to put them away. I'll see how he pulls up and might look for a race in town for him." - Dominic Sutton

Sponsorship Doing A Full Circle

Waikato Stud is proud to sponsor the horse ambulance, who treated WS-bred Groomsman. After suffering an injury on track, the horse ambulance made it possible for him to travel the 121km trip safely in order to get the treatment he needed. We are delighted to say he has recovered, and is now in his forever home with Kalah Mckay.
