Ardrossan on a roll

Ardrossan is in flying form, and so are his offspring! In his first two crops, he's produced 17 winners and strikes at 9.8% stakes winners/runners from small books.

WS-bred 2YO son of Ardrossan, Jazzclub (ex Vanilla Essence) looks a youngster to follow with confidence following his victory at the first time of asking for Ciaran Maher at Seymour on Tuesday afternoon.

Ardrossan enjoyed another winner with 3YO Pacifico (ex Carib) who claimed his maiden win in style win under Triston Moodley for Andrew Forsman. Congratulations to his owner/breeders Jomara Bloodstock.

Vale Tom Lowry

We are sorry to learn of Tom Lowry's passing, which will undoubtedly be the subject of much reminiscing. Racing has seen many characters, and Tom is right up there.

The WS family is lucky to have Okawa Stud's support and friendship, but Tom's company was priceless.

Rest in peace, you will be missed.

Kennedy's maiden NZ win

Waikato Stud's promising filly Subtle Power (ex Kim Dynasty) provided Barbara Kennedy with a memorable result at Ruakaka on Saturday afternoon. The 3YO by Savabeel was successful at her second appearance to give the Byerley Park horsewoman her first New Zealand training success, and adding to the occasion was husband Warren guiding the filly to victory.

Alcabeel off to a flying start

WS-bred son of Savabeel, Alcabeel (ex Miracle Miss), trained by Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott, had a successful debut at Newcastle on Saturday, winning over 1400 meters with jockey Jean Van Overmeire aboard. Congratulations to all connections!

Super Seth's super impact

Our G1 Caulfield Guineas-winning sire, Super Seth, not only leads the NZ First-Season Sires' table but has also made a strong impact across the Tasman.

He's the only NZ first-season sire in the last 12 years to produce five individual Australian winners and an Australian stakes winner.

Beautiful Waikato mornings

The Waikato put on a show this week!
