Recent winners...

Ocean Park

Ocean Park claimed the Goulburn Cup last week. Grebeni (ex Dubrovnik) charged home to his fifth career win, locking in eligibility for the 2024 Big Dance for Gerald Ryan Racing. Bred by Dalanna & Tunstall Bloodstocks, he was a $100k Magic Millions buy for his trainers from Tyreel Stud. Well done to all!

A promising son of Ocean Park, Kureder (ex Charmeuse) outstayed his rivals to post a dominant third-career win for Chris Waller at Eagle Farm. Bred by Kevin Hickman, he sold for $380k through the Valachi Downs Karaka draft to his trainer & Guy Mulcaster.

3YO filly Quinsea (ex Ensemble) was tough to the line, breaking her maiden under Kate Hercock for Daniel Champion and Kezia Murphy at Ashburton. She was bred on-farm by Garry. Congratulations team!

Ocean Park scored at Riccarton over cup week! Mystic Park (ex Spirit of Karlu) pulled clear with a confident win for Michael & Matthew Pitman under Joe Doyle. Bred by Weowna Park, he is a Karaka graduate for Kilgarvin Lodge. Very exciting.

Savabeel

3YO Soar Beyond (ex Kanlaon) found the gap to claim his maiden win on his second start under Fred Kersley for Danny O'Brien Racing. Congratulations to Danny and your team!

WS-bred son of Savabeel, Sir Albert (ex Diana Dors) confidently led the field to win on his home turf at Riccarton. Ridden by Sam Weatherly for local trainer Terri Rae, this is his fourth win. Congratulations to all connections - he's one to watch

Celestial Fury (ex Sister Celeste) made all and recorded his fourth career win for Nathan Doyle at Hawkesbury. A Karaka R2R Sale grad for Riverrock Farm, he was bred by Kevin Hickman.

3YO Anderson Bridge (ex Tricia'O) battled to the line to score a maiden victory for Chris Waller at Hawkesbury. A $200k Inglis Easter grad for Bhima Thoroughbreds, he was bred by Sir Patrick & Lady Hogan and Dr Tsoi.

Group winner #90 for Savabeel. Fashion Shoot (ex High Fashion) flew home fast and late to claim the G3 Breeders' Stakes at Riccarton on Wednesday under Warren Kennedy for Mark Walker & Sam Bergerson. A $320k Karaka buy for David Ellis, we bred her in partnership with Howard & Pamela Forbes. Huge congrats to all involved!

It was cross-Tasman double for Savabeel. 3YO filly Waikato Girl (ex Scintillula) stormed home with a late challenge to break her maiden at start two for Michael Freedman Racing at Rosehill. She was a $600k Karaka buy for Michael Wallace from her breeders Pencarrow Stud. Well done to all.

Tivaci

Exciting 3YO Tivaci colt, Big Bay Wolf (ex Costume), produced a strong front-running display to score at Hawkesbury for John O'Shea Racing. He was a $180k Karaka R2R Sale buy for Go Racing from Ohukia Lodge. We look forward to following this boy's career.

Kana (ex Tick Tock) went home with a late burst of speed to record back-to-back wins for Peter Didham at Riccarton. The four-time winner was bred by Vermair Racing and is a Karaka graduate for Landsdowne Park.

Tivaci was on the board at Riccarton for a second time! 3YO filly Mazzucato (ex Yellen) charged down the middle of the track to record her second career win under Michael McNab for Te Akau. She was a $120k Karaka buy for David Ellis from Carlaw Park. Congratulations - an exciting filly.

Goodluck to our girl Skew Wiff

Tomorrow Skew Wiff is lining up in the G1 Sir Rupert Clarke Stakes at Caulfield.
Go well girl, New Zealand is right behind you.

A WS legacy continues

"A special part of WS history. To get a product by G1 2000 Guineas conqueror Noverre out of Legs, especially at 21 years of age, is amazing. Dual-G1 winner Legs has played a pivotal role in the past 21 years, and we hope that this exceptional Noverre filly will continue to contribute to the legacy of our stud for the next 21 years."
