The Boys were on show

Last week WS hosted our annual stallion parade. We had an incredible day despite the weather. A huge shoutout must go to our dedicated team, who presented the boys in fantastic order.

Thank you to all who attended.

Savaglee - simply superb

The Waikato Stud-bred and sold son of Savabeel was back in style when resuming at Taupo this week, ridden by Sam Spratt for Pam Gerard.

Exciting times ahead for Savaglee's (ex Glee) connections, The Oaks Stud, as they look to boost the colt's future stallion profile this season.

Meanwhile, Glebe (ex Glee) impressed at Murwillumbah last week to secure a maiden victory for Chris Wallers stable. Making this a hot Waikato Stud family with two winners in three days!

The Foaling continues at WS

Our Ardrossan x It Might Be You (Savabeel) filly made an appearance recently. Jess has been soaking up some quality time with her favourite mare's new foal.

Harry Chittick on the tools

He's spent the last month shadowing WS farrier Kane Clayton-Greene, learning his craft.

Super Seth Filly impresses

Super Seth's classy daughter Diablo Blanco (ex Phoebe Snow) won easily when she raced away to score last week on the Riccarton Synthetic under Ashvin Goindasamy for Richard Didham. Congratulations to her breeders Little River Thoroughbreds Partnership & T V Rider.

The three-year-old filly will now go in pursuit of black-type success on September 14.

WS legend Glenda and WS Aus rep Daniel getting their steps done early to the top of the Kaimais this week!

A gorgeous view looking back over WS.

IWIW treks to base camp

I Wish I Win (Savabeel) has begun his next Everest ascent with his first start of the preparation looming next Saturday in the Group 1 Moir Stakes at Moonee Valley.

Trainer Peter Moody gave a positive update on his gallop at Pakhenam last week.
