

Breeding Season is all go!

Our six stallions enjoyed some time in the paddock following a busy morning in the breeding shed on day one of the season.

With 17 bred beautifully, we ended a big day with a well-deserved cold beer. Great team, great stallions - well done all!

Linebacker on track

The 3YO colt by Super Seth was in the zone at trackwork last week.

The O'Shea & Charlton Racing team are happy with how Linebacker (ex Garden Of Swans) is progressing and excited for the big Spring campaign ahead.

The champ with Blandford's Graham Bax

Graham's mare, Advert, was covered by Savabeel on Sunday afternoon.

A proud original shareholder, Graham has been breeding to Sav for 19 years, producing stars like the late Lucia Valentina and Pasadena Girl.

Mystic Park makes an impressive return

Sprint features & Australia could be on the cards for Ocean Park's son, Mystic Park (ex Spirit Of Karlu) after his speedy display over 1000m at Riccarton last Saturday.

The 5YO collected his sixth career win under Sam Weatherley for Michael & Matthew Pitman.

24/7 Foaling

Night watch star Karyn gives the Noverre x Frankly (Pins) colt his first drink of mother's milk.

The action doesn't sleep at this time of year and our night watch team are essential, they are always there to ensure the safest foaling possible.

King rules at Kembla

Bred by Pippa Chittick, the son of Tivaci, King Of Thunder (ex Sheezababe), stormed home to claim a dominant maiden win for the O'Shea & Charlton Racing team at Kembla Grange on Saturday afternoon.

Early strike for well-bred mare

Our homebred Sacred Falls mare, Minnehaha Falls raced clear to register a nice maiden win at Wyong on Sunday afternoon.

She's out of the great Savabeel mare, Fabulist, making her a full sister to G1-winning superstar Icebath and G3 winner, G1-placed Courier Wonder. Big thanks to Annabel Neasham, Rob Archibald, and their team—great to get our first winner with their new training partnership.
